

2,500 Paris Commies March Against Pact

Police Stop Show Before It Goes Far

Paris, Aug. 5—(AP)—2500 Communists marched on a song around the fringes of the police-packed Place de la Concorde today but failed to carry their demonstration against the Atlantic pact to the doorstep of the U.S. embassy.

The semi-official French news agency reported several persons were slightly hurt and said around 100—including three women communist deputies of the National Assembly—were arrested for refusing to move on. The disturbance was slight.

Later all those arrested were released.

The communist chorus on the outskirts of the spacious square chanted "we want peace" and sang the communist anthem, "The Internationale."

U. S. Chiefs Miss Show

The three American chiefs of staff, whose presence in France was the pretext for the advertised demonstration, banned by police, saw none of it.

They were at Fontainebleau at the time, 35 miles away, on one leg of a busy round of talks with French and European union military commanders, exploring the preliminary for the Atlantic pact defense system.

Six thousand police and soldiers, using the customary macing strategy to frighten off threatening communist uprisings, kept the peace in the Place de la Concorde. The U. S. embassy is in a corner of the great square.

A small communist delegation was permitted inside the embassy. Brig. Gen. Joseph O'Hare of the embassy staff received the delegation but said it was not his place to accept any petition.

Refuses To See Reds

Ambassador David Bruce refused to see the communists today but said he would be glad to receive them tomorrow. Members of the delegation said they wanted to protest aggression against "peace-loving Russia."

The American chiefs, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Adm. Louis Denfeld, and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, spent over four hours in military talks on their first full day here.

In the forenoon they met with the three French chiefs of staff and lunched with them and Defense Minister Paul Ramadier.

Then they went to western European union military headquarters at Fontainebleau, the place where Napoleon signed his abdication.

Vandenberg told reporters afterwards: "What we were talking about was to get ideas of what type of organization is best from the military point of view."

Four-Power High Command Planned For Pact Defense

London, Aug. 5—(AP)—A four-power high command is being planned for the Atlantic pact defense system, diplomatic officials reported today.

They said the projected supreme defense council for the 12 pact nations would be run by the United States, Britain, France and Canada.

The Big Four plan was said to be one of the main subjects brought up in discussions this week among the three touring American chiefs of staff and army, navy and air force leaders of European signers of the pact.

Diplomatic sources said Britain and Canada had given preliminary endorsement to the plan and that France was expected to agree in conferences going on today and tomorrow in Paris.

Report Severe Quakes In Ecuador Kill At Least 80

Quito, Ecuador, Aug. 5—(AP)—A series of rocking earthquakes struck east central Ecuador today and at least 80 persons—probably many more—were reported killed.

At Ambato, 11 miles south of Quito, 80 bodies were recovered from the ruins of buildings toppled in the city's industrial district. Reports from Latacunga, about 31 miles south of Quito, indicated most of that city was destroyed, and many persons killed.

Ambato has a population of about 40,000 and Latacunga about 20,000. Other towns struck included Salcedo, Pujilli and Saquisilí, in the provinces of Cotacachi and Tungurahua. Panic and disorders were reported to be general.

President Galo Plaza Lasso took personal charge of arrangements for first aid and relief. He left for Ambato to supervise rescue work after dispatching several army air force planes with medicine and doctors. The Red Cross mobilized forces, and two relief trains were en route south.

Sounds Of Mysterious Beast Terrify Couple

East Granby, Conn., Aug. 5—(AP)—Bear? Gorilla? Horse? Or is it some weird, mysterious animal? Uneasy residents of the Lake Basile section of this town asked those questions today after reports got around that there was a strange animal in the neighborhood.

The best description they could give was that it gallops like a horse and has the claws of a bear.

No one has seen it. Some have heard it. But there for all to see were its clawprints on the soft dirt road.

Morgan J. Horne was among those who reported hearing it—at ten minutes past midnight.

"It was nothing like I have ever heard before," he said. "My wife had a horrible look on her face."

The animal's breathing, he reported, was "terrific, almost unbearable" and a lot heavier than that of a horse.

"When we heard this galloping noise and the heavy breathing, our English shepherd dog, Buddy, went crazy," said Horne. "He almost went through the screen."

Maybe the animal was two animals.

An examination of the prints by Detective Anton M. Nelson of the state police suggested that.

He said there were two sets of prints side by side, one large and one small.

Sportsman Ronald I. Miller opined: "Must be either a bear or a gorilla."

He used to do a lot of hunting when he lived in Maine. If it's a bear, said Miller, it's a big one—more than six feet tall.

Frees 1.8 Billion To Hike Loaning

Washington, Aug. 5—(AP)—The federal reserve board today ordered cuts in bank reserve requirements to make an extra $1,800,000,000 available for lending.

Reserve requirements refer to the proportion of deposits that banks in the federal reserve system are required to post with federal reserve authorities as non-lendable reserves.

Second In 3 Months.

"Cut in reserves is the second in three months. It is the latest in a series of 'easy credit' moves by the reserve system to bolster an economy which has been slipping since last fall.

The order will permit banks to lend—if they desire and if they have loan applicants—a greater portion of their deposits than at any time since October, 1941, just a few weeks before Pearl Harbor.

Issued on a complicated system of scheduling, the order provides that the reserves required on demand deposits (checking accounts) will:

At New York and Chicago banks, be reduced from the present 24 percent of deposits to 22 percent on Sept. 1. Reductions will begin Aug. 11 and proceed at the rate of one-half percent each week until the finish point.

At "reserve city banks," meaning generally those in larger cities, be reduced from the present 20 percent to 18 percent on Sept. 1. Reductions will begin Aug. 11, and proceed at the rate of one-half percent each week.

Cut From 14 To 12%.

At "country" banks, be reduced from 14 to 12 percent. The order made a reduction to 13 percent immediate and provided for the rest of the drop to 12 percent to take place on Aug. 16.

On time deposits (savings accounts) requirements will be dropped from six to five percent. At New York and Chicago and at Reserve City banks this reduction will take place Aug. 11. At "country" banks, an identical reduction will take place Aug. 16.

The reduction of the third ordered in 1949, will release an extra $500,000,000 for lending by New York and Chicago banks, $675,000,000 for Reserve City banks, and $625,000,000 for "country" banks, the board said.

The total of $1,800,000,000 in extra lendable funds to arise from the order exceeds the amount of lendable funds currently available at reserve system member banks.

Illinois Gets New Public Assistance Code In Five Laws

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 5—(AP)—Illinois got a new public assistance code today which, Governor Stevenson said, represents a "major advance" in public welfare.

The governor signed five bills, wrapping up into one set all the provisions dealing with public aid which heretofore were scattered throughout the statute books. He said the code repeals obsolete provisions—some 75 years old—simplifies the language, and does away with duplications, considerable overlapping, administrative confusion and unnecessary expense.

No important changes in assistance grants are made by the new code. It repeals nine old laws and brings their provisions together in an easily understood arrangement.

In a statement, Stevenson said the code discards the "harsh attitude" of an 1874 act characterizing those who get assistance as paupers.

Foreign Aid Bill Held Up For Fight Over Socialism

Washington, Aug. 5—(AP)—The big foreign recovery bill was delayed again today—this time by a Senate fight over an amendment designed to halt socialism in Britain.

Leaders had thought the $5,647,724,000 measure, which includes funds to carry on the Marshall plan of European recovery, was on the point of passage.

They had beaten, 46 to 34, an amendment to penalize France for alleged mistreatment of American business men in French Morocco.

Previously other amendments had been knocked out.

But just as a final vote appeared on the bill, Senator Kem (R-Mo.) introduced an amendment to deny aid to any nation which nationalizes in the future any of its basic industries.

Debate on this was in progress when the Senate quit until Monday.

Kem's amendment would apply to any Marshall plan nation—but it is aimed particularly at Britain's socialization program.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, democratic leader, challenged the Kem amendment as being out of order—and Acting President Tydings (D-Md.) upheld the challenge. Then Kem appealed the Tydings decision to the Senate.

The French Morocco amendment was offered after 37 Americans trying to carry on businesses in French Morocco complained the French were discriminating against them.

Catholics Reject Czech Decree To Defy Pope's Order

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Aug. 5—(AP)—The government's order that priests must deny the Vatican decree on excommunication drew a defiant rejection tonight from Roman Catholic authorities in western Bohemia.

The Episcopal vicar (diocese administrator) at Litomerec replied to the order which threatened punishment if violated. His answer said in effect: "We cannot read your signature. And what are you doing in a Catholic consistory interfering in the internal affairs of the church?"

Both documents—the order and the reply—have come into western diplomatic hands.

Some two months ago the communist ministry of education seized Catholic church consistories (administrative offices). The controlled Czech press claimed the action was necessary to halt the issuance of pastoral letters.

Meanwhile, in Prague, a prominent churchman said priests had been warned to beware of communists who might come to them pretending to be Catholics and seeking sacramental ministrations.

Leopold III Says Only Parliament Can Decide Status

Brussels, Belgium, Aug. 5—(AP)—Exiled King Leopold III tonight told Belgium's three leading political parties only parliament can decide whether he should return to the throne.

While accepting in principle a popular referendum on his return, he said it "must be nothing else than an opinion expressed by the citizens to parliament and the king."

The King's message was addressed to the social Christian (pro-Leopold) parties. It was dated yesterday at Pregny, Switzerland, where the King has been living in exile, and was released tonight by the Royal secretariat here.

Leopold has not lived in Belgium since the war. The King had surrendered the Belgian forces to the invading Nazis in May, 1940, and became a prisoner-of-war. After the country was liberated by the allies in 1944, with the King there, Germany's parliament elected as regent his brother, Prince Charles.

In 1945 the chamber of deputies voted 96 to 6 to continue the regency and to bar the King's return to his throne without parliament's consent.

Boy's $25 Romance With Girl Ends In Dead Letter Office

Waukegan, Ill., Aug. 5—(AP)—Little Kenneth Goze's $25 romance with a neighbor girl ended in the dead letter office.

Kenneth, five, wanted to send the girl, whom he knew only as "Princess," some play money.

So his mother, Mrs. Goze of North Chicago, helped him address the envelope. He put his name on top and the single word "Princess" on the body of the envelope.

Later Mrs. Goze found $25 gone from the cash register of her father's grocery store. On King the mother, she learned he had decided to add some real money to the letter. He had stamped and sent the envelope.

Mrs. Goze recovered it in the dead letter office.

U. S. Blasts Chiang Regime For Fall Of China To Reds

'White Paper' Says No Aid To Nationals

Washington, Aug. 5—(AP)—The Truman administration today publicly abandoned all hope of saving China from the Reds by aiding its Nationalist government.

In an unprecedented blast, it labelled that government as a dismal failure in the war against Communism.

Instead of aiding it, the administration laid down a policy of encouraging the Chinese people to throw off the "foreign yoke" of a Red regime which, Secretary of State Acheson charged, serves Russian imperialism.

Announced In Letter.

The new turn in American policy was announced in a letter from Acheson to President Truman, presenting him with the long awaited white paper on American relations with China. It was amplified in a statement which Acheson made to a news conference an hour after the white paper was made public at 9 a.m., central standard time.

In the statement Acheson laid down five "basic principles" for American relations with China, with emphasis on rebuilding "an independent" Chinese nation.

In its American white paper on China policy the state department:

Wrote off the Nationalist government as hopeless failure, its armies not beaten but "disintegrated."

Declared the Communists can overrun China at will, and, in Russia's service, may then attack China's neighbors.

Urged a new, arm's-length U.S. policy of aiding every effort in China to cast off the "foreign yoke"; discouraged new direct aid.

Forecast grave difficulties for the new Communist regime.

Released the suppressed and rejected Wedemeyer report of 1947. It urged a five-year Chinese aid plan, if Chiang Kai-Shek would reform his government and hand Manchuria into U.U. trusteeship.

Mr. Truman has endorsed the Acheson letter at his own news conference yesterday and there was no doubt that it represented the considered views of the administration.

It accepted the communist conquest of China as an accomplished fact. Acheson argued that the nationalists are militarily incapable of blocking the forward march of the red armies into those areas of China which they do not yet actually control.

Not 'Defeatist Attitude'.

But Acheson said in his statement, he does not at all share in "the defeatist attitude" of some. Rather he sees the communists extending themselves without being sure of their strength or of the reactions in store for them in China and elsewhere.

The secretary wrote Mr. Truman that the communist regime might try to attack China's neighbor nations in line with "aims of Soviet Russian imperialism."

The 1,054-page official record of Chinese-American relations is probably without parallel in U. S. diplomatic history for its criticism of another friendly government.

It bluntly blamed China's fall to communism on Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and other Chinese nationalist leaders. It said their unwillingness to win popular support for their leadership was the root cause of their "failures."

No battle was lost by the nationalists for lack of American aid, Acheson told the president in his letter. This aid since the end of the war has totaled more than $2,000,000,000, he reported.

Assailed By Congress.

The administration report was promptly assailed by members of congress who have long favored greater assistance to the Chinese nationalists. Their attacks on the report as a "face saving" explanation were countered by administration supporters in congress who described the bulky document as "realistic."

The white paper included not only Acheson's letter but also a 408-page running account of American-Chinese relations since 1844, including the famous Wedemeyer report, and a total of 186 diplomatic documents. Many of the papers were classified, until today, as top secret.

The report by Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, who went on a special mission to China for President Truman in 1947, conditionally advocated in September of that year a five-year program of American aid.

Wedemeyer said this government should undertake the program, even though it threatened a third world war, because establishment of Russian influence in China would be "inimical" to American interests.

The conditions which Wedemeyer laid down would have required the Chinese government to ask for a United Nations trusteeship over Manchuria to prevent that area from becoming a Soviet satellite.

Truman Pushes Solons For Education Aid Bill

Washington, Aug. 5—(AP)—President Truman put pressure on his congressional leaders today to get a federal aid to education law on the books. The legislation is called in the House by a dispute over whether parochial and private schools should share in any of the proposed $300,000,000 federal grant.

The president's lieutenants didn't make him any promises. They apparently considered the controversy too bitter for that. They just said they'd try again.

Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, democratic leader in the House, said that passage of any such bill is "very problematical." He said there was a very frank exchange of views at the conference, but that nothing was resolved and no decision made.

Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.), chairman of the House Education and Labor committee, declined to say whether he would call his deadlocked committee into session again.

Other participants at the conference were Vice President Barkley, House Speaker Rayburn, Senate Majority Leader Lucas, Chairman Elbert Thomas of the Senate Education and Labor committee, and Rep. Priest of Tennessee, the House Democratic whip.

In his presidential campaign last year, Mr. Truman bore down hard on the need for federal aid to the nation's schools. Now he is trying to redeem his pledges in that respect.

The Senate passed a bill authorizing grants up to $300,000,000 a year, with the states allocating the money in accordance with their own policies. Whether parochial or private schools got any of the money would be up to the individual states.

A religious dispute broke out in the House over this question, however. Rep. Barden (D-NC) introduced a bill which would bar the use of federal money for non-public schools under all circumstances, regardless of state laws. Lesinski called the bill "anti-religious."

Cardinal Spellman denounced it in New York as "un-American." A violent argument ensued, and several leading Democrats have given up hope of passing the measure this session.

Says Vets Must Not Ask Too Much

Stevenson Tells Legion Conference People Will Rebel

Chicago, Aug. 5—(AP)—Gov. Stevenson today told the Illinois American Legion that "people will rebel against unreasonable demands" by veterans.

Commander William G. Burns replied that veterans "will never raid the treasury."

Engage In Polite Fencing.

The two engaged in a polite arms length fencing match at the opening of the 31st Annual Illinois American Legion convention. The convention sessions are being held in the gold and velvet auditorium of the Chicago Civic Opera House.

Stevenson said, "I think the people of Illinois and America will always be generous when it comes to financing legitimate recognition of its creditors—the veterans."

"But they will rebel against unreasonable demands just as they will rebel against payroll padding, waste, extravagance, or any form of inefficient administration of public funds."

"I think it is in the self interest of veterans organizations to see to it there is no preventable abuse of the generosity of the people."

Relieve Costs.

Burns, of Chicago, in an impromptu reply at the conclusion of Stevenson's speech said, "let me assure you that we realize the continuing and mounting cost of government. Every economy should be exerted by those charged with governmental responsibility."

"We as veterans never will attempt to raid the treasuries of the state or nation."

Burns, when shown the text of the governor's speech before Stevenson arrived, said, "we'll take him on."

Sen. Paul H. Douglas, (D-Ill.), in the opening address to the convention, indicted Russia for hampering the attainment of a stable peace. He said, "an ice age of terror has again moved westward, but it is now cracked and if we are to widen the cracks we cannot get discouraged. We need to be strong to keep Russia from aggression."

About 1,000 of the 5,000 delegates and alternates almost filled the main floor of the opera house. The House was decorated with signs calling for the election of Merle E. Schaad, Princeville, for department commander succeeding Burns. Schaad is unopposed.

Kills Wife, Self In Hawaii Crime Prevention Bureau

Honolulu, Aug. 5—(AP)—A 19-year-old taxi dancer ran into the crime prevention bureau last night seeking protection.

Finding the bureau manned only by an unarmed clerk, she locked herself in a washroom.

Then the husband rushed in, climbed to a transom, shot his wife dead and committed suicide as a policeman rushed in with drawn gun.

Dead were Francis Bartholomew, 22, and his wife, Mary. Two small children survive.

Police said they found a note written by Bartholomew: "Don't worry about me. I won't harm you. Contact me only when you are ready for divorce."

Some Solons Oppose Not Aiding China

Washington, Aug. 5—(AP)—A big chunk of congressional opinion today opposed Secretary of State Acheson's proposal to abandon direct aid to China in the face of Communist conquest.

Criticism of the white paper sent by Acheson to President Truman today crossed party lines. One Democratic congressman called it an "alibi" for American failure.

A Democratic senator, Pat McCarran of Nevada, forecast that Acheson's proposed policy of giving only arm's-length encouragement to internal Chinese resistance would bring all Asia under Communist control "in a short time."

GOP Mostly Critical.

Republicans were almost unanimously critical. But the State Department course was defended by some Democrats who saw it as the only "realistic" one to follow. Said Senator Johnson (D-Colo.):

"To intervene in the Civil War in China would be reckless beyond description. The State Department in this instance is being realistic and sensible."

Senator Tydings (D-Md.), chairman of the armed services committee, thought the department is "realistically aimed in the right direction."

The Republican reaction ranged from regret to angry denunciation. Minority leader Martin (R-Mass.) said the Republican party is studying the report and may issue a statement later.

Senator John Foster Dulles (R-N.Y.), foreign policy adviser to Governor Thomas Dewey in the latter's bid for the presidency, saw in the paper an attempt "to explain and excuse past failures."

Hopes It Succeeds.

"Fortunately the State Department is seeking a new policy and I very much hope it succeeds," he said.

More affirmative action was demanded by Senator Wherry (R-Neb.), Republican floor leader. His statement declared:

"I can't agree to writing off nationalist China. I can't see why we lock the front door against communism in Europe and leave the back door open in China."

There was no sign, moreover, that the paper's step-by-step recital of failures of nationalist government leaders would deter a new senate move to cut China in for part of the $1,450,000 foreign military aid program. China would get $175,000,000 and advice from a U.S. mission on how to use it.

Says U.S. Aided Reds.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), who led 11 senators in making that proposal yesterday, said the white paper proved that this government tried to "encourage, induce or compel the inclusion of communists into the government of China."

"It is to the everlasting credit of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek that he stood then as he stands today—uncompromisingly against this tie-up with international communism."

Rep. John Davis Lodge (R-Conn.) observed: "apparently the administration would rather lose a continent than lose a little face."

This note was struck also by Rep. Cox (D-Ga.). He called the white paper a "face-saving device" and an "alibi."

Three Women Get Diplomas After 30 Years Of Work

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 5—(AP)—Three Michigan women have crisp new Western Michigan college diplomas that they worked from 30 to 38 years to earn.

The oldest of the trio, 68-year-old Mrs. Zella Weinberg of Vicksburg, first enrolled at the college in 1911 and didn't get a chance to finish until her fourth grandchild was born. She attended classes during nine summer sessions to finish work for her bachelor of science degree.

Mrs. Eloise R. Leonard, 51, of Delton, and Mrs. Viona P. Baker, 47, of Gobles, also received bachelor of science diplomas. Each had started work 30 years ago.

Mrs. Leonard has one grandchild and Mrs. Baker has four children.

IGNORING A FEW RULES CAN MAKE A MOTORIST A STATISTIC
The National Safety Council reports traffic fatalities for the first six months of 1949 are the lowest in U. S. history for the number of miles traveled. But there is small solace in this fact. For the actual death toll was 13,810, less than 1 per cent below the 13,910 recorded in the same period a year ago. Projected annually, the figures mean that the equivalent of the population of Miami Beach, Fla., will be wiped out in 1949.

The Council has done a magnificent job, of course, in keeping Americans constantly alert to the danger of motor travel on increasingly burdened streets and highways. There is something brutally grim about the Council's accuracy in forecasting highway fatalities on big holiday weekends. A typical announcement may say: "Over the Fourth of July there will be 290 traffic deaths in the nation." Inexorably, death will occur in numbers close to the predicted figure. No matter how strong the appeals for careful driving, the fatalities will happen.

Death will come to drivers who have passed road tests and to drivers who haven't. It will strike everywhere, but most heavily in the country's big clusters of population like New York and Chicago.

It is abundantly evident now that mere warnings plus the simple road tests prescribed by most states will not halt the carnage on the highways. What, if anything, will check it? We suggest that motorists and all public and private agencies concerned with driving safely focus on three main points:

First, present-day driving has certain inevitably explosive factors—the speed and maneuverability of modern cars, the inadequacy of most thoroughfares on which they travel, and the consequent continuing menace that unavoidable errors of human judgment will turn any normal traffic stream into a shambles of death in an instant.

Second, if the driver wants the best chance of averting a possibly fatal crash, he must recognize the explosive situation by acting seriously and responsibly when he is behind the wheel. He can't ever relax fully. The moment he diverts his attention is the moment an accident is born.

Third, the driver must not at any time assume that his fellow motorist is attending to business the same as he. Anyone who has plied the country's highways for long knows the only safe assumption is that the other driver will do the worst possible thing in a given case. He usually does.

These lessons might sound a little commonplace. But if they could be well learned by a majority of motorists we believe prospects are great that few drivers would wind up as added digits in the National Safety Council's grim statistics.

A MATTER OF SCALLIONS

(Denver Post)

Government red tape complicates the simplest process. Take buying onions, for example. To a housewife, nothing simpler or easier. She merely goes to the grocery store and buys them. Or she can make the purchase by phone. But that's not the way the army does it.

An investigator for the house appropriations committee checked up recently and found an army purchase of onions required 288 separate and distinct actions. An order to buy some onions were sent from the office of the quartermaster general in Washington to the Chicago office. The chain of events which followed, according to the Tax Foundation's publication, "Tax Outlook," was this:

"The order was:
"Date stamped, time stamped, examined, routed, copied, typed, receipted, entered on other documents, underlined, described and,
"Key punched, card punched, coded, tabulated, checked, matched, filed, discussed, reviewed technically, then just plain reviewed, and,
"Indexed, analyzed, mailed, abstracted, printed, registered, inspected, sorted, noted, stored, transmitted and vouchered.
"Messengers handled it 110 times in its trip through 18 subdivisions."

If housewives had to buy their food "government style," we'd all starve to death.

The War That Hasn't Ended

By HAL BOYLE
New York. —(AP)—The cold war is a bore. A third world war is something few even wish to think about. But the second world war is still of tremendous public interest. Politically, that war is still continuing, but its combat phase has been over for four years. And it is the period of actual fighting that people want to know more about. What was it really like? What really happened at places like Iwo Jima, Salerno, Anzio, Bastogne?

War Is A Jig-Saw Puzzle
Year by year, as the memories and the novels pile up, the real story of mankind's greatest test-at-arms is filtering through. For war is a kind of huge jig-saw puzzle. You can't put it together and understand it all at once because the pieces come to you slowly.

The general pattern of the war can best be found in the memoirs of people who usually write memoirs—generals and statesmen. To get the real feel of battle and the hurt it gave, you have to turn to books written by the men who fought the war and best knew its boredom and danger—the junior officers and enlisted men.

Two of the latest are "A Tent on Corsica," by Martin Quigley, an ex-sergeant in the 12th Airforce, and "Day Without End," by Van Van Praag, a former infantry platoon leader.

Explore New Territory
Both explore new territory. Van Praag tells of a one-day tale of the life and death of a doughboy platoon in the heart-breaking hedgerows of Normandy. It is rough and bitter and true. Quigley's book deals with the adventures, sometimes hilarious, sometimes fatal, of a group of B-26 bomber gunners who knew they had one chance in four of getting home. It is the best story yet on the boys who rode the medium bombers.

In the pictorial field, the most ambitious presentation of the second world war is the series of 26 television films prepared by March of Time and based on Gen. Eisenhower's book, "Crusading in Europe." To compile the series, currently being tied over the ABC-TV network, the editors had to scan 165,000,000 feet of official service films and newsreels—some 31,050 miles.

Shows Impact Of War
This series, covering the European war from the rise of Nazism to the signing of the German surrender in the schoolhouse at Rheims, shows the impact of war—its brutality and devastation—more graphically than

How To Get Help If Polio Strikes In Your Family

1. At the first sign of illness, call your own doctor. If he suspects polio he will report the case to the local Health Department and arrange for hospitalization or home care, as indicated. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis does not select physicians or hospitals. This is a family matter. If you have no family physician, call your City or County Medical Society, your Board of Health or the nearest hospital.

2. If your doctor says it is polio and requires hospitalization, the local Chapter of the National Foundation will help arrange for transportation to a treatment center. As soon as the patient goes to the hospital—or if your doctor advises the patient can be treated at home—get in touch with your Chapter of the National Foundation to arrange for any needed assistance.

Waverly Girl Is Winner Of FHA Scholarship
Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 5.—(AP)—Carthage (Hancock county) chapter of the Illinois Future Homemakers of America has been named the outstanding chapter in Illinois. The winner was awarded the Illinois Bankers Association bronze plaque last night at the ninth annual leadership training conference of the Illinois FHA.

Carthage was selected for having carried out the best all-around work program during the last year. Six girls were presented with $100 home economics scholarships in Illinois offices. They were Donna Jeanne Summers, Waverly; Ida Goodwin, Peotone; Beverly Beck, Edwardsville; Norma Anes, Shelbyville; Vivian Foss, Libertyville, and Lilabelle Lebeque, Highland.

3. The Chapter representative will notify the hospital that it is arranging with you for full or partial payment of expenses for medical care. Adults are as eligible for help as children. Discuss with your Chapter how much of the full bill the Chapter will pay.

A.) March of Dimes funds are used to help the medically indigent—but this is not the same as "indigent." It includes families of moderate income, who cannot meet the high cost of modern care of this expensive disease. The help is a gift—not a loan. While families that can pay are expected to do so, no family is expected to impoverish itself to meet medical expense for polio.

B.) Even if you can assume full costs for initial hospitalization, it is a good idea to see your Chapter. If yours should be a patient who is severely affected—and this cannot be determined in the first few days—you may need help later on. Bills incurred in the weeks before your Chapter assumes financial responsibility cannot be paid months afterward, but the Chapter will step in at whatever time you really need help. Have a frank, friendly talk with your Chapter representative at the beginning.

4. Chapters pay for hospitalization, professional service including nursing and physical therapy, transportation to and from hospitals, convalescent centers and clinics, treatment after hospitalization and appliances such as wheelchairs, braces, etc., as needed. There are no hard fast rules. Each case is dedicated

Why It Costs More To Run An Automobile

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
AP News Feature Writer.

Washington—The over-all cost of buying and operating a new automobile has just about doubled since pre-war days. The biggest single factor in increased post-war costs has been the higher selling price of cars. However, repair costs, gasoline prices and auto insurance premiums also have risen substantially.

A reduction in these costs must come if long-range trends to increased auto use and economy are to be continued. The return of an auto buyers' market will help some, but further emphasis on economy will be necessary. These are the findings of Wilfred Owen, transportation specialist of the Brookings Institution. Owen analyzes the trends of auto use and cost and their importance to the national economy in "Automotive Transportation," a book just published by the Institution.

Before the war an "average" new car in the medium price field was operated at an annual estimated cost of 4.3 cents a mile. That figure was determined in a study by the Public Roads Administration.

The total annual cost of the car for the year 1941 was estimated at $363. It was assumed that the average auto selling price was $900, that annual travel was 9,000 miles and that the car had a 10-year service life. Owen says that last year the magazine, The Automoblist, figured the yearly cost of a 1948 car was $851.33 or a little more than 8.5 cents a mile. It was assumed the car sold for $2,000 and was operated 10,000 miles in a year.

In 1941 the biggest single item in average auto costs was gasoline. In post-war years expenditures for motor vehicle purchase (which determine depreciation costs) have been larger than those for gasoline. The annual depreciation cost in the 1941 estimate was $90 compared with $400 (first year) in the 1948 study. Gasoline cost was $94.50 in 1941 and $180.03 (including tax) in 1948.

Maintenance (repairs) was figured at $75 in 1941 and $100 in 1948. Auto fees and taxes were $38.50 before the war and $68 in the post-war year. Insurance rose from an estimated $25 to an estimated $85.80.

High auto prices have been in part a temporary situation owing to comparative scarcity of new cars. Owen says that while prices will ultimately decline they presumably will stabilize well above pre-war levels. In recent years the weight of autos has increased with greater horsepower for improved performance. And costs, Owen asserts, have increased in almost direct proportion.

In 1948 the typical car was 150 pounds heavier than in 1941 and 500 pounds heavier than in 1937. There has been emphasis on the possibility of lighter materials such as aluminum and plastics. But Owens says the prospect of adopting airplane materials and construction to motor cars must be viewed with caution.

He cites one engineer who thus expresses the problem: "If our cars always stayed on the road, I would say that we might build airplane-type bodies." The fact that the motorist expects to bounce his car off a telegraph pole and live presents a different problem.

FRECKLED NOBILITY—Herbert Harris, 11, takes a magnified look at Sally Brady, 9, after they were chosen King and Queen of Freckles at the Chicago Railroad Fair. The judges had a tough job trying to decide between Herbert and two other boys, until Herbert took off his shirt. Then he won with freckles to spare.

ASHLAND

Ashland—Mrs. Stuart Jenkins and children, and the former's sister, Miss Myrtle Warren of Belleville, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, S. St. Stuart Jenkins left in April for a three-year stay in Germany, and his family will leave for there sometime after September to reside.

Jerry Mullen has returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Mullen from a week's stay at St. John's hospital in Springfield. Mullen suffered a broken arm in a fall from a wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hartledge have returned to their home in Louisville, Ky., after a few days visit at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Tommy Adkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woolridge and daughter have left for Campbellsville, Ky., for an indefinite visit with relatives.

Sandra Bean of Springfield is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland. Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Douglass of Bloomington spent the week end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wiegler and son of Danverport, Iowa, were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Otkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Scot Whistat of Bloomington were week end visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Len Faull.

Wren Scott of Hayworth spent the week end with his wife at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Drake. Mrs. Scott is quite ill.

NO MORE FLIES AROUND HER HOUSE!

Mrs. Lorene Thaxton, 522 Henry street, was caught by a Journal Courier photographer, just as she complied with both of the important steps advised by the Morgan County Health Department, in the campaign to free Jacksonville and the surrounding community from flies. Her conduct and like conduct of other housewives, is making the campaign a success.

First rule—Clean up. Garbage is disposed of often, and regularly at this home, and the lid to the can fits tightly in place.

Second rule—Spray. Mrs. Thaxton uses the recommended 5 percent solution of DDT twice a week.

Asked if she would give us some other tips on how she kept flies away, she stated it's a good idea to spray screens—all screens, to be sure—and porches of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaxton recently purchased their new home. They have two children, Connie, who is two years old, and Steven Clifford, six months. Mr. Thaxton, a graduate of Illinois College, will teach next year in the new South Jacksonville school. Mrs. Thaxton is a registered nurse.

Boy Scouts Will Assist Clubs In Anti-Fly Campaign

The Boy Scouts of Jacksonville will meet at their meeting places Sunday afternoon at 1:30, to assist the Lion's club and other organizations, in the Anti-fly Campaign.

Every boy, or scout, from the age of 11 up, is urged by Howard Reynolds, Chairman of the Health and Safety committee, to participate in this good turn civic project for the city of Jacksonville. "In so doing, they will not only help their neighbors, family, but also themselves," Mr. Reynolds said.

Members of the Lion's club, in automobiles, will pick scouts up at the Central Christian church, Congregational church, Grace Methodist, State Street Presbyterian, Centenary, Elk's Club, Bethel A.M.E. and First Baptist churches and South Jacksonville school. All boys, Scouts or non-Scouts, who wish to participate in this undertaking, are urged to be at one of the above named places, Sunday afternoon at 1:30.

Former Resident Of City Married In California

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gaither, 762 Freedman street, have received word of the marriage of Virgil Admire, son of Mrs. May Admire of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly of this city, to Miss Lillian Scheer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scheer, also of Los Angeles.

The informal wedding ceremony took place July 3, in the presence of relatives and close friends. Verla Admire, sister of the groom, and Sidney Wagner were the attendants.

Following a wedding trip along the Pacific coast and to Mexico, the couple returned to their home at 247 W. 68th street, Los Angeles.

Mr. Admire is manager of the Admire Scientific cleaners.

Former Roodhouse Resident Succumbs In California

Mrs. Myrtle Evans, former Roodhouse resident, passed away Sunday, July 31, in the Queen of Angels hospital in Los Angeles, Calif. She had resided in California for the past six years.

Mrs. Evans, daughter of the late William and America Robertson, was born in Scott county near Glasgow. She was 65 years of age. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Glenda Driver of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. Wendie Oglesby of Eagle Rock, Calif.; and one brother, O. R. Robertson of Winchester.

Preceding her in death were her husband, J. C. Evans; a sister, Mrs. Samuel Day; and a brother, John Robertson.

The body arrived Friday at Mackey Funeral Chapel in Roodhouse and will remain there until the hour of the service, which will be Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Roodhouse Methodist church.

Burial will be in Williams-Edwards cemetery west of Barrow.

50 Babies Born At Carrollton In Past Month

Carrollton—Fifty babies were born during July in the Boyd Memorial hospital, according to a statement made by the superintendent, Mrs. Bernice Meade. Also during the month, 177 patients were admitted to the hospital for treatment in varying degrees. For a hospital that is normally equipped with 28 beds, the facilities were greatly overworked. An enlargement of the hospital is being planned.

Babies born in the hospital the past week include a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mohr of this city; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jackson of Kemper; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bock of Brighton; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Melville Mayhew of this city; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer of Kampsville; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carter of this city; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn of Piasa; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kramer of Jerseyville; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burns of Medora; and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pinkerton of Berdan.

PARENTS OF SON
Bluffs—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis are the parents of a son born Tuesday morning at Passavant hospital. The mother is the former Miss Mary Jane Mains, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mains.

Virginia Children Attend Ball Game In St. Louis Park

Virginia Day at Sportsman's Park was held on Thursday with 24 children from Virginia attending an exciting baseball game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Boston Braves.

Just before game time a ball was knocked into the stands where several of the Virginia boys were sitting. A quick shuffle of feet and hands resulted and Sonny Ross came out of the pile with a new baseball, a very proud boy indeed.

Following the game the Virginia kids were taken to Lambert field where they had a very enjoyable time watching the many large, small, and medium sized planes coming and going in all directions.

Those making the trip were Doug Griffin, Reggie Fisher, Garry Sweetman, James Acree, Bill Steadman, Cliff McClure, Jack King, Ray Huston, Junior Stiles, Gayle Smith, Tom Damonte, Jerry Collins, Bob Collins, Ed Fair, Dale Hawkins, Larry Fisher, Sonny Ross, Bob Acree, S. Griffin, Bob Marr, Cecilia Damonte, Dona Rossi, Lou Ann Johnson, Sue Ann Fisher, and Jim Walton.

Accompanying the children throughout the trip were Mr. and Mrs. William Rossi Jr., Robert Morse, Mrs. Caldwell, Virgil Whitington, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, Kenny Devlin, James Frisch and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jumper.

The Virginia caravan joined the Jacksonville group in Jacksonville.

Large Crowd Attends Winchester Burgoo

Winchester—The largest crowd in the history of local burgoo picnics took over Winchester Thursday for the annual American Legion burgoo picnic and homecoming. A large crowd swarmed into the Scott county seat at 11 a.m. to witness the tractor parade, a novel event featuring cleverly decorated tractors of all descriptions.

First place in the parade went to Jimmie Moore of Winchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Moore, with second and third prizes going to Jim Coultas and Randall Killebrew, respectively.

By one o'clock, nearly 400 gallons of soup had been sold. By 7 p.m. the last kettle of soup was drained, and several hundred people waiting in line could not be served.

Kenneth Cunningham, commander of the Winchester post, stated that at 10:30 p.m. the entire picnic was a sellout. Vast supplies of fried chicken, ham, hamburger, hot dog sandwiches, ice cream, lemonade, cakes and pies were depleted by the large crowd.

The barber shop quartet contest held during the evening program was won by the Morgan County Four of Jacksonville. Four other excellent quartets were enthusiastically received by the crowd.

The other quartets competing were The Virginians from Virginia, The Chapin Four, The King City Four of Jacksonville, and The Crackerjacks from Beardstown.

Other events on the program were The Prairie Pioneers and the Winchester-Bluffs high school band under the direction of Melvin Dal-

MORGAN FARMERS INSPECT NEW FERTILIZER CO-OP

Thirty Morgan county farmers, and Farm Bureau employees went on an inspection trip Thursday to look over two properties recently acquired by the Illinois Farm Supply company.

They visited the Pana refinery and the new fertilizer mixing plant at Fairmount City. The refinery was purchased a year ago at a cost of approximately $1,000,000. The cooperative has a daily capacity of 200 tons, cost $1,300,000.

When the group arrived Thursday afternoon the plant was turning out 80 pound bags of 3-12-12, a favorite blend of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. The farmers carefully looked the factory over and expressed a hope that the efforts of the cooperative would improve the standards of the mixed fertilizer trade.

Several other Illinois Farm Bureau groups inspected the plant Thursday, but the Morgan county delegation was by far the largest.

Shown on a section of the truck loading dock are, left to right, Clyde York, Jacksonville; a Jefferson county Farm Bureau member; Vernon Ransom, Franklin; another Jefferson county man; Louis Boddy, Jacksonville; Wilbur Williams, Chapin; Paul Johnson, Ashland; Ivan Petefish, Jacksonville; Robert Houston, Jacksonville; Virgil Wechoff, Concord; Elfred Detmer, Chapin; Alfred Enke, Jacksonville; Verne Bergschneider, Alexander; Dale Brainer, Chapin; Leo Taylor, Jacksonville; William Henry, Jacksonville; Barney Camm, Franklin; Roy E. Smith, Jacksonville; Lawrence Smith, Franklin; E. H. Tywford, Franklin; Rola J. Ash and L. T. Oxley, Jacksonville, and Everett Johnson, Alexander.

Standing on the lower level are J. D. Bunting and Everett Reynolds of Jacksonville; Albert Nienhiser, Chapin; Frank J. Flynn, Murrayville; Ruel Carpenter, Franklin; Chester A. Thomason, Chapin, and Earl Rexroat, Literberry.

Air Force Will Interview Men For Officer Schools

Three Air Force officers composing an aviation cadet and officer procurement team will be in Springfield, Ill., for the next two days for the purpose of interviewing and examining all interested persons who care to apply for the aviation cadet pilot or navigator training or attend the Air Force officer candidate school.

Applicants must be between the ages of 20 and 26, in excellent physical condition, have two years of college or be able to pass an examination showing equivalent education.

The team, composed of Major Horace Finch, Captain Clarence L. Odum, and Captain Jean Fucilean, will hold interviews and conduct examinations at the Springfield recruiting station located at 204 East Adams street, Springfield, Ill. All persons interested in applying for the Aviation Cadets (either pilot or navigator training) or for officer candidate school should plan to be at the recruiting station on the 8th or 9th of August. Application papers may be obtained from any Air Force base or recruiting station and prepared in advance by interested applicants.

$200 Contribution By Cardinals For Boy's Club Here

President Fred Saigh of the St. Louis Cardinals has announced that a $200 contribution will be made to the Trinity Episcopal East Side Boys' club of this city from proceeds of a game to be played at Brooklyn later this month, between the Cardinals and Dodgers.

Managements of both teams will donate the net proceeds of the contest—the play-off of a tie game—to youth organizations and charitable agencies.

The proceeds of the game will be divided among Protestant, Catholic and Jewish organizations. Trinity church carries on an extensive youth program.

Mr. Saigh was speaker at a dinner July 6 in Jacksonville.

The game from which the proceeds will be donated follows a deadlock between St. Louis and Brooklyn, caused when play was halted to allow players to catch trains.

Ladies Aid Sends Boxes To Europe
Two boxes were prepared for needy persons in Europe by the Immanuel Lutheran Ladies' Aid at its meeting held in the church basement.

The meeting, which opened with hymn, scripture reading and prayer by the pastor, J. Schlichting, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Julius Staake.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Howard Tegeder and Mrs. Herbert Tegeder. The remainder of the day was spent quilting. Eighteen members were present.

LOYAL PARTNERS PLAN PICNIC
The Loyal Partners class of Central Christian church will hold a potluck picnic at Nichols Park, Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Members are asked to bring sandwiches, a covered dish, and table service.

The committee in charge of arrangements is Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Gayland Swisher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kraushar, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chambers.

Complete YMCA-Red Cross Sponsored Swim Lessons

The final three-week period of Red Cross swimming and Water Safety classes conducted at the Municipal pool in Nichols park was completed this week. The program was organized and carried out through the cooperation of the YMCA.

The swimming lessons, designed to meet the need and ability of every student enrolled, included progressive work for non-swimmers through senior life savers and have been in progress since June 16.

Water Safety instructors for the local Red Cross chapter, and Glen Williams, lifeguard at the pool, directed the classes, under the supervision of the local water safety chairman.

Upon completion of the life saving and water courses, the city gained seventeen students trained to assist capably at the scene of a water accident. Certificates and insignia from the National Red Cross headquarters will be issued to them in the near future.

Members of the senior class were Bob Burton, David Hickman, Kathie Ferry, Betty Dreckner, Jerry Ramsey, Darrow Steinhilmer, George Thayer and Joan Wooten. To be eligible for the course, a student must have the ability to swim 440 yards, do standing dive in good form, know the standard swimming strokes, be able to swim under water, tread water and float. In a minimum of 15 hours' class time, all types of approaches and carries in rescuing a drowning victim, and resuscitation are taught, and special problems in swimming rescue discussed.

List Named
Those who passed the junior class were Donna Ryan, Connie Long, Jimmie Flynn, George Davis, Ike Wright, Joe Sommers, Donnie Rawlings, and Bob Rawlings. Their work, conducted on a pattern similar to the seniors, is concerned primarily with personal safety in swimming and the elementary forms of rescue. The students become familiar with rescue equipment, the approaches, carries, and artificial respiration.

These classes were taught by Miss Mary Standley and Mrs. Blanche Reuck.

The Morgan county Home Bureau will serve lunch during the day. The fat and dairy cattle will be judged during the afternoon.

The Danish system of classification will be used. Ed Lamb, field man for the St. Louis Producers Commission company, will judge the hogs, beef cattle and sheep. Farm Adviser Robert Slayton of Scott county will judge the other entries.

Many of the boys and girls who have been pampering their livestock through the season hope their pets will come through to win blue ribbons at Tuesday's show. If they do, their youthful owners will enter them in the Illinois state fair 4-H and open competition.

Some of the county's 4-H leaders will serve as department superintendents during the day. Elfred Detmer of the Victory club and Robert Houston of the Joy Prairie group will be in charge of the swine show; Ralph Dahman of Franklin will direct the beef cattle exhibit; Robert Darley of Franklin, dairy; Ernest Newingham of Nortonville, sheep; and W. C. Carter of the East Side Juniors, garden.

Swimming instructors were Mrs. William Casler, Miss Anna May Nagle, Miss Brenda Standley, Mrs. Betty Longenebaugh, Miss Nancy Munk, and Miss Mary Marsh.
